

It is a privilege for me to welcome you to Basel, as it plays host to the 2016 UEFA Europa League final. This city has experienced some fantastic nights of continental football down the years as well as some thrilling matches at UEFA EURO 2008 and we hope for another historic chapter to be written here in this showpiece fixture.

The competition has been given added spice by the awarding of a place in the UEFA Champions League to the winners, with Sevilla FC being the first to claim that prize in Warsaw 12 months ago. We hope that, whoever wins here, you all enjoy a night of great football that is played in a spirit of fair play and respect.

Thank you to all of the Swiss FA, the city of Basel, all of the volunteers and, last but not least, you – the fans – for making this final a memorable event.

Theodore Theodoridis, UEFA General Secretary ad interim

It is with great pleasure and pride that I welcome you to Basel, Switzerland, for this year's UEFA Europa League final. Enjoy this picturesque and football-loving city, our multicultural country and, of course, a great football match!

Peter Gilliéron, Swiss Football Association president

Canton of Basel-Stadt

I am very pleased to welcome you to Basel. I wish all the fans a fantastic day with their team here in our city and an entertaining game at our beloved stadium. May the best team win.

Dr. Christoph Eymann, Basel state councillor

WELCOME TO BASEL

Basel is considered to be the cultural capital of Switzerland: it has a beautiful historical city centre and nearly 40 museums. The city is on the river Rhine in the German-speaking part of Switzerland, bordering France and Germany. This unique location is one of the reasons why the citizens of Basel are known to be open-minded and cosmopolitan. At the same time, traditions and the history of the city are of high importance to them. This shows, for example, through their strong support of the local football club, FC Basel. Whether at domestic matches or at international level, the team can count on their big fan base, which has helped Basel to gain a reputation as Switzerland's football stronghold. However, the enthusiasm for sport goes further than that: the city is also very proud of tennis star Roger Federer, who was born and grew up in the Basel region.
